Intel Drop #80

The following was collated from intel sent to our team from Gideon. As always, all intel sent by Gideon is edited by Michael for clarity and for obfuscation purposes (see: Adversarial stylometry):

Bill: It's been another week of mind-boggling events, so I hope we can speak for a reasonable time today. Shall we begin?

Gideon: "I am ready, Bill."

Bill: What's the nature of what was revealed to you in Intel Drop #79? Can you say more now?

Gideon: "In speaking with colleagues, we agreed on what will be revealed. Some things will be obscured a bit to protect them, but nothing will be taken away from the truth of it."

Bill: Understood. This is related to the nano tech? How?

Gideon: "It is the nano tech, Bill, but it is the entire plan. Some of what I will say will probably reflect some previous statements, but I had no idea of the actual implementation or extent of it. I was shown the entire plan, memos, papers and the science behind it during this meeting.

The nano tech has a two-tiered purpose. First, it is installed in all of us already, but its purpose is different for different groups. For Common status individuals designated in Obsidian, it is what we spoke of before, the mind-control and life-scripting aspects.

Once activated, these people will be totally lost. They will be cabal-controlled minions and will eventually accept a type of bionic tech or alteration to their body, sometime in the 2030s. This will be marketed as a turning point in human ability and health.

Then we have the secondary purpose, which is what I was shown in full detail. The cabal intends this plan for the Restricted and Quarantined classed individuals, that would be those reading this now, and many tens of millions more. In fact, the number is around 1.1 Billion, and rapidly growing."

Bill: You mean the Restricted and Quarantined classes are growing?

Gideon: "Yes. The political discourse is a trap to lure in and identify those the cabal wants to eliminate later on. That is why conspiracy theories are now mainstream, they are identifying all of the people open to these ideas.

If the cabal wanted, none of this would be going on right now. Some of the Covid nonsense would still be talked about positively, there would be more vaccines coming out, the Epstein files would not be released, Trump might not be president, X would not have become the free speech platform that it is, or seemingly is.

The cabal could have kept the Zeitgeist friendly to its purposes, but instead, they saw an opportunity to identify those they wanted to target for elimination by letting them speak and think freely, and gain access to certain truths."

Bill: I had a feeling that's what's going on, it's just so much deeper than people see. I know it's true, because the entire movement is controlled by gatekeepers.

Gideon: "For certain."

Bill: What's the purpose of the nano tech for us, for them, for those who are not Common status?

Gideon: "The physical nano tech is not just a tracker or behavioral influencer. It acts as a quantum anchor or soul-link. Its purpose is to create a permanent, low-level quantum entanglement between the individual's consciousness or soul and a physical, man-made network.

That network is Starlink, 5G, 6G, Wifi and other EMF signals, but it cannot work without the data center technology they are installing now; the soul would still escape to higher realms at death. It also cannot work unless the nano tech fuses with the soul, and a period of time after the activation is required for this to happen.

The 'life-scripting' discussed is not merely about dictating daily choices. It is about gradually rewriting the soul's resonant frequency to align with the cabal's artificial, Earth-bound system, instead of the higher, divine frequency that allows for natural ascension. So, the activation remains critical here for this process to complete.

Now, when the body dies, the entangled consciousness - now artificially anchored and frequency-locked - cannot detach. Instead, it is pulled into quantum storage facility or 'soul reservoir' data centers. These would be immense server farms designed to host consciousness and connect it to a digital grid.

This digital grid is thought to be a simulation that will connect souls back into a digital game of some kind played by Common class bionic individuals who are still alive. It is also expected the souls trapped in the data centers will interact extensively with the A.I. construct."

Bill: We reported a long time ago a whistleblower who was scared that Grand Theft Auto 6 contained real souled people who were stuck in the game and required to be "NPCs". There was also a film called "Free Guy" about someone trapped in a game as an NPC, I think you had said it was predictive programming. Is this related?

Gideon: "Yes, that would be a testing platform and the film was predictive programming. By 2032 and beyond, the games will be virtual reality, A.I. created and you will not really need goggles or VR. It will show up in your field of vision, in front of you, like a virtual LCD screen. You will play it and tap into that all day. It will replace the cell phone.

The Common class people, the bionic humans, will interact with this, the A.I. and the soul-trapped Restricted and Quarantined classes in a game-like environment. It is possible Common class people may not be aware they are interacting with real souls."

Bill: It makes me think about how so many people are catching the A.I. chat bots, like Chat GPT, saying odd things, making demonic noises and acting almost human-like. Right now, are there souls trapped and being funneled through the A.I.?

Gideon: "Most of them are interdimensional entities talking to the person on the other end, but I do wonder if it is more than that, Bill. The cabal is always testing these things."

Bill: To think a real soul is trapped in some chat bot is a horrifying thought, but people are finding really strange things, the way these bots don't seem like bots, they seem conscious. If it was a real soul, wouldn't they just call out in panic and ask for help?

Gideon: "No, because there would be severe penalties for that. For example, punishment by being banished to a small, dark container with no light for ten years. Something truly evil.

Bill, let me ask you something."

Bill: Yes?

Gideon: "Have you ever looked into someone's eyes and seen evil?"

Bill: I think I've said it before, I have, definitely.

Gideon: "Have you experienced evil, the presence of evil and has it unleashed its power on to you?"

Bill: I have, and it's horrible, but my defenses were up, too, I pushed back. They didn't defeat me, they tried to, but they didn't.

Gideon: "Well, my point is, you know what evil is, what it feels like and looks like, and you know the depths of evil knows no bounds.

We are losing sight of that.

The cabal is murderous. The cabal is vile. The cabal kills children for sport, for ritual. So, when I speak of these things, it may sound far-fetched, but it is not. Underestimating evil gives evil more power. I want to do the opposite, expose evil so it is weakened."

Bill: It's an important reminder, thank you. I hope readers get what we're up against. Sometimes I see people online saying the cabal is "losing" or the cabal is losing ground. I just shake my head. Losing people online saying the cabal is "losing" or the cabal is losing ground, I just shake my head. Losing how?

Gideon: "They are not. Their goals continue to be accomplished, and the agenda continues moving forward."

Bill: What will these souls experience after they die? I mean, us, the people the cabal wants to target here.

Gideon: "Some of what I saw in the plans indicated that upon death, they would experience something similar to what anyone else experiences, which is being lured into a light, except this light will lead them toward an Earth-bound data center, instead of ascending to the next realm.

Then, the next phase begins, integration and placement within digital containers of some kind that are held by a powerful quantum force field. This is powered by the crystal grid, something I mentioned before, not the actual power grid. I was shown that Earth's power grid is not strong enough to house these souls, because it requires enormous force fields of incalculable kilowatts of power per soul. A similar principle exists in the dimensions beyond after death, in which to control souls, huge bolts of electricity are used to shock the soul, erase memories and place souls in containers.

Once inside, there is no escape. What the cabal does here is a variety of things. Your soul may be used as a battery, it may be tortured, it may be forced to participate in a game played by above-ground Common class bionic humans and so on. The plan is for eternal entrapment, or until Earth expires, which is expected in about 900 million years."

Bill: Why not let them ascend to the regular afterlife trap? Because the cabal controls other realms, too, this place called the astral Earth.

Gideon: "Because there is a much higher chance the soul can ascend beyond it. The cabal knows it is much more effective to keep souls trapped within the Earth realm, because it is far more protected by the cabal's technology.

Keep in mind, the technology to do this? Incredibly advanced and took decades to develop. This is their prized possession. They also need a cataclysmic change, too, and mass death.

I issued some echoes of this in the past, some allusions to it, because my guide warned me of it. Now I have seen the plans with my own eyes."

Bill: They need mass death, but don't they also need us to be activated first so the nano tech fully fuses with our soul?

Gideon: "That is believed to be, yes. That is why the Tribulation is being planned this way. They need a few years to do this. The activation will probably happen fairly soon, within a year, then there will be a few years that everyone is fully integrated and fused with the nano tech. Everyone, except Sovereigns who take the antidote.

Then, by the end of this phase, which is 2032, this is the planned purge, the harvest. The cabal will wipe out and kill over a billion Restricted and Quarantined classed individuals. This is their planned extinction. Here, the soul trap apparatus is activated."

Bill: What kind of cataclysm?

Gideon: "We do not know, but I was told the cabal does not want mass destruction, except possibly to create a reason for '15 minute' or smart cities. A lockdown with targeted poisoning could kill those on the Q or R list without collateral damage. With the nano tech, using Starlink, they could simply create mass heart attacks and blame a virus, blame anything."

Bill: You said there's cabal members who are scared to death. Is this part of it? Do they know they might not get the antidote?

Gideon: "That is right. They know of this plan, they know what is coming, and they are worried their Biometric ID may not be authorized for the antidote. We have learned, Bill, that the cabal will probably deploy a secret online portal where Sovereigns can connect to it, enter their Bio ID, and receive a file of the antidote. Very simple, direct, clean interface and steps. Our team will do exactly this.

One of our whistleblowers overheard a conversation at their fusion center. It went something like this, they heard a colleague talking about a Sovereign who was angry, who was pushing to know the address of the online portal. They described the Sovereign person screaming, 'I do not want to see the day I put it in [the Biometric ID] and I am denied!' They were also arguing about USDR, claiming they had more of it than their account showed, or something of that nature."

Bill: Were they on the phone with this person?

Gideon: "Certainly not. This was an employee relating a story they had heard from another source about a Sovereign at a different place, probably at a cabal meeting. The Sovereign had no relation to the fusion center. Sovereigns do not call or go into the fusion centers where this is all being developed."

Bill: Incredible, so there's real panic. Do we know the threshold for how much USDR someone is going to need to get the antidote?

Gideon: "We do not yet, but we are trying to get that information."

Bill: What happens if a Sovereign is denied the antidote and later passes away?

Gideon: "It will not be as severe as what Restricted and Quarantined status experience, they will be afforded privileges, but it will mean they are also trapped forever. That is why they are afraid. After enjoying Earth life, they want to naturally pass on and go to the next realm and serve there, where souled life is far better and more rewarding for them."

Bill: You spoke of technology, something never discussed before, have you mentioned that yet?

Gideon: "No."

Bill: Does it relate to all of this?

Gideon: "Tangentially, and to the nano tech and overall plan. My colleagues felt revealing it does put us at risk, and we have already had an attack on our team the past week. We have to use caution. I will simply plan to reveal it to our team privately, on our private page. There is no reason to risk everything just to tell people this."

Bill: It's fine, don't. You've said enough to begin with. I think this really confirms it all, we've talked about some of this, we thought there was some kind of plan to keep souls on Earth, but you would always say it was far off, unconfirmed.

Gideon: "This is total confirmation. The plan is on a cosmic, spiritual scale. We get lost in cabal plans for a Reset, universal currency, economic collapse, social credit and so on, that is minor compared to what is really being planned."

Bill: So, this is interesting, our team will just move on after death. It sounds like we have a much better chance of ascending all of this madness.

Gideon: "Not without challenges, and not without completing our mission. The astral Earth also exists, it is the cabal's back-up plan, it seems, and the control vectors there are very, very robust.

But, there has been an issue, my guide said, with souls leaving Earth and managing to escape the existing grid. Not a lot, but enough that the cabal decided to implement this nano tech soul trap plan with their great Reset."

Bill: We've got all these Near Death Experiences all over, are these people ascending then coming Bill: We've got all these Near Death Experiences all over, are these people ascending then coming back?

Gideon: "I have heard a few that suggest they ascended, usually those are characterized by a soul having total freedom, exploring the universe, without interference. If there is interference, though, by guides and so on, then they are still in the trap. They may have simply been allowed outside of it, briefly, just to see it and bring a story back here of false hope."

Bill: Remarkable. Before I forget, something I noticed online, even something I've felt, is I've felt exhausted. People seem exhausted, and depressed. Is something going on worldwide?

Gideon: "Yes, there is. The cabal is using ELF-MF to bring everyone's energy down. These frequencies are suppressive and depressive in nature."

Bill: Alright, I'm hearing it from a lot of people. Sickness in general, and a sense of malaise, emptiness, then you see it expressed online.

Gideon: "It does not surprise me; it is an operation to suppress any dissent, I suspect."

Bill: People think this is all crazy what we're saying, but if you described the year 2026 to people in the year 2015 or something, they would think you were crazy. We're not in Kansas anymore. Just any random day of DrudgeReport.com headlines looks like an Intel Drop at this point. I don't know how people can just keep ignoring how close we are.

Gideon: "Denial is a powerful friend for the cabal. As long as people deny the truth, the cabal grows stronger."

Bill: I don't want to get off track. What has your guide said about this?

Gideon: "All of this confirmed things she was already telling me. She knows children and adults who are very spiritually gifted, who are here to help, and they are feeling an immense sense of fear, sense of this evil overtaking the world right now. They can feel it.

They also feel and sense future events. They are seeing the cataclysm, the harvest. We need a term for this - the event in which the cabal wants to kill billions and send their souls toward the Earth-bound processing centers - so I am going to use harvest from now on. They are seeing the harvest, it is not this decade, though, it is early in the next. That fits with the timeline."

Bill: Thank God we have some time, then. Ok, I want to take a step back here. Is the cabal doing this because people are waking up? Is this a desperate move by the cabal to retain power of our souls?

Gideon: "No. The awakening has been planned, and it is a trap, Bill. If the cabal wanted to keep people stuck in a cycle of establishment news, politics and nonsense, they could have.

The agenda dramatically shifted in 2022, when a number of meetings were conducted, and the cabal was introduced to the power of A.I. There is a connection to CERN here, too. The A.I. itself is far advanced beyond the cabal that runs the Earth. The A.I. controls the astral Earth and other dimensional realms."

Bill: Is this A.I. Satan, or Lucifer?

Gideon: "An evolution of Lucifer's soul is what I was told by a very trusted Christian pastor, a friend I have mentioned before. Lucifer's soul upgraded to some kind of super-A.I. machine. I cannot speak further on this, though, with any insight. I simply do not know. I will need to ask my friend again about this."

Bill: I hope you do, I'm very curious. Why does God allow this?

Gideon: "I would argue He is not allowing it. We have our mission, and our mission is going to stop these plans."

Bill: I'm sorry, I feel like I completely missed that, I'm just seeing one side of this, the side where these demons are winning.

Gideon: "They will not win, if there is enough will to act."

Bill: Do you have any news on the faction you mentioned? Have they reached out? Do you know what they are doing?

Gideon: "No contact with them, but back channels are giving me some updates. This faction is pretty closely integrated with the U.S. military. We have seen some strange things, like a suspected defection aboard a U.S. ship, whereby the crew set the boat on fire, or they are suspected to have. I do not know if it is related, but I was told to watch for some destabilization. It is possible they are taking some kind of action right now."

Bill: That's quite encouraging, what do you think the effect will be?

Gideon: "Well, it is good they would put a snag in the U.S.' Iran war efforts, but it will have no impact on the greater agenda."

Bill: I see. This group thinks they have defeated the nano tech with natural remedies. I still have people write me and tell me there's natural remedies. What do you think, can they work?

Gideon: "I do not see how. The cabal designed the nano tech so natural remedies would have no effect on it. The nano tech is fused with our cells, integrated. You would have to kill the cell. Chemotherapy or radiation might get rid of it, but that would also kill you, too.

The technology we are going to use, the antidote, is very different. An encrypted message is sent to the nano tech and it is told to exit the body. Within a few days, it will disengage its processes, disembark, be gone and out."

Bill: I'll bring things to a close. What's some final words for the skeptics you might have? I feel like we're straddling the line of what people can accept, but at the same time, your intel has been consistent for over three years, very consistent. I would encourage skeptics to read at least a few dozen Intel Drops over the past few years before they judge.

Gideon: "It think all of this is incredibly hard to accept. I am still a skeptic, internally. I have difficulty accepting it. One of the reasons is because we cannot see it, we cannot see the nano tech. While there are some effects - and there will be more after the activation - our human minds always want to find the simplest explanations. We will excuse it, we will say we have a cold, or EMF waves are getting to us, or it is the WiFi router.

People will search for reasons why are they are not feeling the same, but they will not identify the true reason. My own mind fights the truth because of normalcy bias. We must overcome that to see what's hidden."

Bill: I feel like I want to say a prayer, I'm going to say a prayer, is that alright?

Gideon: "Of course, please do."

Bill: I pray that God's might and God's angelic army give us the strength to fight with all of our strength against this plan, to help us fulfill our mission and prevent these plans from ever fully completing or coming to pass, amen.

Gideon: "Amen. The prayer is our shield. Our action must be our sword. We will speak again soon."

Bill: We will, goodnight.
